

~~SECRET~~

D R A F T

5 June 1950

PROPOSED STATEMENT OF FUNCTIONS

OFFICE OF REPORTS AND ESTIMATES

I. Mission

The Assistant Director for Reports and Estimates is responsible for the production and presentation of foreign intelligence needed for the formulation and execution of policies, plans, operational decisions and courses of action affecting the national security (except for specialized treatment of specified subjects in the fields of physical and natural sciences), for the coordination of governmental intelligence production activities, and the planning for an integrated governmental intelligence production effort.

II. Functions

The Assistant Director for Reports and Estimates shall:

1. continuously analyze and interpret the significance of the pertinent factors in foreign conditions, situations, trends and developments in all foreign areas for the purpose of performing the following listed functions.

~~SECRET~~